

Vontier Announces Appointment of Maryrose Sylvester to Its Board of Directors

3/31/2021

RALEIGH, N.C.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Vontier Corporation ("Vontier") (NYSE: VNT) today announced its Board of Directors has appointed Maryrose Sylvester as a director of Vontier.

Ms. Sylvester is a strategic, growth-oriented leader who is passionate about technology, innovation, sustainability, and automation. Most recently, she served as U.S. Managing Director and U.S. Head of Electrification for ABB Group, a global technology company, operating mainly in areas of electrification, robotics, power, and automation. Prior to joining ABB Group, Ms. Sylvester spent more than 30 years at GE, serving most recently as President and Chief Executive Officer of Current, a digital power service business that delivers integrated energy systems, and was a member of GE's Corporate Executive Council, GE's Commercial Counsel, and was instrumental in helping to launch the GE Women's Network. She serves on the board of directors of Harley-Davidson, Inc., the iconic American motorcycle manufacturer, and is a member of its Human Resources and Nominating and Governance Committees. She also serves on the board of Waste Management, Inc., North America's leading provider of comprehensive waste management environmental services, and is a member of its Management Development and Compensation Committee. She holds an undergraduate degree in Procurement and Production Management from Bowling Green State University and an MBA from Cleveland State University.

Karen Francis, Chair of the Board of Directors of Vontier, said, "Maryrose is an experienced board member with a proven track record of transforming industrial businesses, applying digital technologies, developing new business models, and launching product and service innovation. We look forward to her contributions to the Vontier board as we explore evolving opportunities to drive compounding growth."
