CEO Commentary

Fifth Third delivered record operating results in 2022. We generated record revenue and prudently managed expenses throughout the year while continuing to invest in our businesses, which resulted in approximately seven hundred basis points of positive operating leverage for the year.

Our results continue to reflect our disciplined and thoughtful approach throughout the bank. For instance, our key credit quality metrics in both commercial and consumer portfolios remain resilient, reflecting our focus on high-quality relationships and our approach to client selection. Furthermore, strong revenue for the quarter reflects both our balance sheet management discipline as well as the benefits of our fee income diversification.

While economic visibility remains limited, Fifth Third has spent nearly a decade focused on generating sustainable financial results. As we navigate the environment, we will follow our guiding principles of stability, profitability, and growth in that order.

We were honored to be named to the top 25 among America's Most Just Companies by JUST Capital and CNBC. This is the only comprehensive ranking that recognizes companies doing right by all stakeholders as defined by the American public. The recognition reflects our longstanding commitment to employees, customers, communities, and shareholders.

| Net interest margin (NIM) | 3.35\% | 3.22\% | 2.55\% | 13 | 80 |

Compared to the prior quarter, NII increased $$ 80$ million, or $5 \%$, primarily reflecting the net benefit of higher market rates, improved yields on fixed rate consumer loans, and loan growth in commercial and consumer portfolios, partially offset by the deposit mix shift from demand to interest-bearing accounts. Compared to the prior quarter, NIM increased 13 bps, primarily reflecting the net benefit of higher market rates as well as improved yields on fixed rate consumer loans, partially offset by the aforementioned deposit mix shift from demand to interest-bearing accounts.

Compared to the year-ago quarter, NII increased $$ 382$ million, or $32 \%$, reflecting the net benefit of higher market rates, as well as growth in C&I loan balances and investment portfolio balances, partially offset by deposit mix shift from demand to interest-bearing accounts and lower PPP-related income. Compared to the year-ago quarter, NIM increased 80 bps, reflecting the net benefit of higher market rates as well as growth in C&l loan balances and investment portfolio balances, partially offset by aforementioned deposit mix shift from demand to interest-bearing accounts.

Compared to the prior quarter, noninterest income excluding certain items increased $$ 50$ million, or $7 \%$. Compared to the year-ago quarter, noninterest income excluding certain items decreased $$ 52$ million, or $6 \%$.

Compared to the prior quarter, service charges on deposits decreased $$ 3$ million, or $2 \%$, reflecting the market related impact of higher earnings credits. Commercial banking revenue increased $$ 24$ million, or $18 \%$, reflecting higher M&A advisory revenue, client financial risk management revenue, and fixed income sales and trading revenue. Mortgage banking net revenue decreased $$ 6$ million, or $9 \%$, primarily reflecting a $$ 6$ million decrease in origination fees and gain on loan sales. Wealth and asset management revenue decreased $$ 2$ million, or $1 \%$, primarily driven by decreased brokerage fee revenue. Card and processing revenue decreased $2 \%$ driven by higher rewards. Leasing business revenue decreased $$ 2$ million, or $3 \%$, primarily reflecting lower lease remarketing revenue. Other noninterest income results were driven by the recognition of tax receivable agreement revenue of $$ 46$ million in the current quarter. Private equity income of approximately $$ 14$ million was stable compared to the prior quarter.

Compared to the year-ago quarter, service charges on deposits decreased $$ 16$ million, or $10 \%$, reflecting the market related impact of higher earnings credits and the elimination of consumer non-sufficient funds fees in July 2022. Commercial banking revenue decreased $$ 13$ million, or $8 \%$, primarily driven by decreases in M&A advisory revenue, loan syndication revenue, and corporate bond fees, partially offset by an increase in client financial risk management revenue. Mortgage banking net revenue increased $$ 28$ million, or $80 \%$, reflecting a $$ 27$ million decrease in MSR asset decay, a $$ 12$ million increase in mortgage servicing revenue, and an $$ 8$ million increase from MSR net valuation adjustments, partially offset by a $$ 19$ million decrease in origination fees and gains on loan sales. Wealth and asset management revenue decreased $$ 11$ million, or $7 \%$, primarily reflecting lower personal asset management revenue impacted by market valuations. Card and processing revenue decreased $$ 1$ million, or $1 \%$, driven by higher rewards partially offset by higher spend volumes. Leasing business revenue decreased $$ 16$ million, or $22 \%$, reflecting the disposition of LaSalle Solutions in early 2022 and a decrease in lease remarketing revenue. The decrease in other noninterest income was primarily attributable to lower private equity income.

Compared to the prior quarter, noninterest expense increased $$ 51$ million, or $4 \%$, reflecting higher performance-based compensation expense, net occupancy expense, and technology and communications expense related to continued modernization investments, partially offset by a decrease in marketing expense and other expenses. Noninterest expense in the current quarter included a $$ 6$ million expense related to the impact of non-qualified deferred compensation mark-tomarket (compared to a $$ 7$ million benefit in the prior quarter).

Compared to the year-ago quarter, noninterest expense increased $$ 12$ million, or $1 \%$, primarily reflecting an increase in technology and communications expense, net occupancy expense, and expenses associated with Dividend Finance and Provide. This was partially offset by a decrease in marketing expense. Compensation and benefits expense in the fourth quarter of 2021 includes $$ 10$ million related to a special COVID staffing bonus to front-line employees.

| Total average interest-earning assets | $187,640 | $185,378 | $187,045 | 1\% | - |

Compared to the prior quarter, total average portfolio loans and leases increased 1\%, reflecting an increase in both commercial and consumer portfolios. Average commercial portfolio loans and leases increased 1\%, primarily reflecting an increase in commercial and industrial (C&I) and commercial mortgage loan balances. Average consumer portfolio loans increased $1 \%$, reflecting an increase in other consumer loan balances (primarily Dividend Finance) and home equity balances, partially offset by a decrease in indirect secured consumer loan balances.

Compared to the year-ago quarter, total average portfolio loans and leases increased 11\%, reflecting an increase in both commercial and consumer portfolios. Average commercial portfolio loans and leases increased 13\%, primarily reflecting an increase in C&l loan balances, partially offset by a decrease in commercial lease balances. Average consumer portfolio loans increased $8 \%$, as increases in both other consumer and residential mortgage loan balances were partially offset by a decrease in home equity balances.

Average loans and leases held for sale were $$ 1$ billion in the current quarter compared to $$ 2$ billion in the prior quarter and $$ 5$ billion in the year-ago quarter. Current quarter average loans and leases held for sale were impacted by a decline in residential mortgage balances (primarily from a continued decline in government guaranteed mortgage buyouts).

Average securities (taxable and tax-exempt; amortized cost) of $$ 58$ billion in the current quarter increased $$ 1$ billion, or $1 \%$, compared to the prior quarter and increased $$ 21$ billion, or $55 \%$, compared to the year-ago quarter. Average other short-term investments (including interest-bearing cash) of $$ 6$ billion in the current quarter increased $$ 1$ billion, or $9 \%$, compared to the prior quarter and decreased $$ 28$ billion, or $82 \%$, compared to the year-ago quarter.

Total period-end commercial portfolio loans and leases of $$ 76$ billion increased $1 \%$ compared to the prior quarter, primarily reflecting an increase in C&I balances. Compared to the year-ago quarter, total period-end commercial portfolio loans increased $9 \%$, primarily reflecting an increase in C&I balances, partially offset by a decrease in commercial lease balances. Period-end commercial revolving line utilization was $37 \%$, compared to $37 \%$ in the prior quarter and $33 \%$ in the year-ago quarter.

Period-end consumer portfolio loans of $$ 45$ billion increased $2 \%$ compared to the prior quarter, primarily reflecting an increase in other consumer loan balances (primarily Dividend Finance) and credit card balances, partially offset by a decrease in indirect secured consumer loan balances. Compared to the year-ago quarter, total period-end consumer portfolio loans increased $8 \%$, reflecting an increase in other consumer loan balances and residential mortgage loan balances, partially offset by a decrease in indirect secured consumer loans.

Total period-end securities (taxable and tax-exempt; amortized cost) of $$ 58$ billion in the current quarter was stable compared to the prior quarter and increased $$ 20$ billion, or $53 \%$, compared to the year-ago quarter. Period-end other short-term investments of $$ 8$ billion increased $$ 2$ billion, or $27 \%$, compared to the prior quarter and decreased $$ 26$ billion, or $76 \%$, compared to the year-ago quarter.

Compared to the prior quarter, average core deposits were stable (with balances increasing approximately $$ 0.3$ billion), as an increase in commercial deposits was mostly offset by a decline in consumer deposits. Average demand deposits represented $35 \%$ of total core deposits in the current quarter, down $3 \%$ compared to the prior quarter. Average commercial transaction deposits increased $2 \%$ and average consumer transaction deposits decreased $2 \%$ compared to the prior quarter. Period end core deposits increased $1 \%$ compared to the prior quarter.

Compared to the year-ago quarter, average core deposits decreased $6 \%$, reflecting the deliberate commercial deposit runoff in mid-2022. Average commercial transaction deposits decreased $12 \%$ and average consumer transaction deposits were flat compared to the year-ago quarter. Period end core deposits decreased $5 \%$ compared to the year-ago quarter.

The period end portfolio loan-to-core deposit ratio was $76 \%$ in the current quarter, compared to $75 \%$ in the prior quarter and $66 \%$ in the year-ago quarter.

Compared to the prior quarter, average wholesale funding increased $6 \%$, primarily reflecting $$ 2$ billion in long-term debt issued and an increase in jumbo CD balances, partially offset by a decrease in other short-term borrowings (primarily lower FHLB advances).

Compared to the year-ago quarter, average wholesale funding increased $77 \%$, as modest earning asset growth outpaced core deposit balances. The growth in wholesale funding was primarily attributed to increases in other short-term borrowings, jumbo CD balances, and from long-term debt issuances throughout 2022.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This release contains statements that we believe are "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Rule 175 promulgated thereunder, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rule 3b-6 promulgated thereunder. All statements other than statements of historical fact are forward-looking statements. These statements relate to our financial condition, results of operations, plans, objectives, future performance, capital actions or business. They usually can be identified by the use of forward-looking language such as "will likely result," "may," "are expected to," "is anticipated," "potential," "estimate," "forecast," "projected," "intends to," or may include other similar words or phrases such as "believes," "plans," "trend," "objective," "continue," "remain," or similar expressions, or future or conditional verbs such as "will," "would," "should," "could," "might," "can," or similar verbs. You should not place undue reliance on these statements, as they are subject to risks and uncertainties, including but not limited to the risk factors set forth in our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K as updated by our filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC").

There are a number of important factors that could cause future results to differ materially from historical performance and these forward-looking statements. Factors that might cause such a difference include, but are not limited to: (1) effects of the global COVID-19 pandemic; (2) deteriorating credit quality; (3) loan concentration by location or industry of borrowers or collateral; (4) problems encountered by other financial institutions; (5) inadequate sources of funding or liquidity; (6) unfavorable actions of rating agencies; (7) inability to maintain or grow deposits; (8) limitations on the ability to receive dividends from subsidiaries; (9) cyber-security risks; (10) Fifth Third's ability to secure confidential information and deliver products and services through the use of computer systems and telecommunications networks; (11) failures by third-party service providers; (12) inability to manage strategic initiatives and/or organizational changes; (13) inability to implement technology system enhancements; (14) failure of internal controls and other risk management systems; (15) losses related to fraud, theft, misappropriation or violence; (16) inability to attract and retain skilled personnel; (17) adverse impacts of government regulation; (18) governmental or regulatory changes or other actions; (19) failures to meet applicable capital requirements; (20) regulatory objections to Fifth Third's capital plan; (21) regulation of Fifth Third's derivatives activities; (22) deposit insurance premiums; (23) assessments for the orderly liquidation fund; (24) replacement of LIBOR; (25) weakness in the national or local economies; (26) global political and economic uncertainty or negative actions; (27) changes in interest rates and the effects of inflation; (28) changes and trends in capital markets; (29) fluctuation of Fifth Third's stock price; (30) volatility in mortgage banking revenue; (31) litigation, investigations, and enforcement proceedings by governmental authorities; (32) breaches of contractual covenants, representations and warranties; (33) competition and changes in the financial services industry; (34) changing retail distribution strategies, customer preferences and behavior; (35) difficulties in identifying, acquiring or integrating suitable strategic partnerships, investments or acquisitions; (36) potential dilution from future acquisitions; (37) loss of income and/or difficulties encountered in the sale and separation of businesses, investments or other assets; (38) results of investments or acquired entities; (39) changes in accounting standards or interpretation or declines in the value of Fifth Third's goodwill or other intangible assets; (40) inaccuracies or other failures from the use of models; (41) effects of critical accounting policies and judgments or the use of inaccurate estimates; (42) weather-related events, other natural disasters, or health emergencies (including pandemics); (43) the impact of reputational risk created by these or other developments on such matters as business generation and retention, funding and liquidity; (44) changes in law or requirements imposed by Fifth Third's regulators impacting our capital actions, including dividend payments and stock repurchases; and (45) Fifth Third's ability to meet its environmental and/or social targets, goals and commitments.

You should refer to our periodic and current reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, or "SEC," for further information on other factors, which could cause actual results to be significantly different from those expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. Moreover, you should treat these statements as speaking only as of the date they are made and based only on information then actually known to us. We expressly disclaim any obligation or undertaking to release publicly any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statements contained herein to reflect any change in our expectations or any changes in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based, except as may be required by law, and we claim the protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The information contained herein is intended to be reviewed in its totality, and any stipulations, conditions or provisos that apply to a given piece of information in one part of this press release should be read as applying mutatis mutandis to every other instance of such information appearing herein.

Use of Non-GAAP Financial Measures

In addition to GAAP measures, management considers various non-GAAP measures when evaluating the performance of the business, including: "net interest income (FTE)," "interest income (FTE)," "net interest margin (FTE)," "net interest rate spread (FTE)," "income before income taxes (FTE)," "tangible net income available to common shareholders," "average tangible common equity," "return on average tangible common equity," "tangible common equity (excluding AOCI)," "tangible common equity (including AOCI)," "tangible equity," "tangible book value per share," "tangible book value per share (excluding AOCI)," "adjusted noninterest income," "noninterest income excluding certain items," "adjusted noninterest expense," "noninterest expense excluding certain items," "pre-provision net revenue," "adjusted efficiency ratio," "adjusted return on average common equity," "adjusted return on average tangible common equity," "adjusted return on average tangible common equity, excluding accumulated other comprehensive income", "adjusted pre-provision net revenue," "adjusted return on average assets," "efficiency ratio (FTE)," "total revenue (FTE)," "noninterest income as a percent of total revenue", and certain ratios derived from these measures. The Bancorp believes these non-GAAP measures provide useful information to investors because these are among the measures used by the Fifth Third management team to evaluate operating performance and to make day-today operating decisions.

The FTE basis adjusts for the tax-favored status of income from certain loans and securities held by the Bancorp that are not taxable for federal income tax purposes. The Bancorp believes this presentation to be the preferred industry measurement of net interest income and net interest margin as it provides a relevant comparison between taxable and non-taxable amounts.

The Bancorp believes tangible net income available to common shareholders, average tangible common equity, tangible common equity (excluding AOCI ), tangible common equity (including AOCI), tangible equity, tangible book value per share and return on average tangible common equity are important measures for evaluating the performance of the business without the impacts of intangible items, whether acquired or created internally, in a manner comparable to other companies in the industry who present similar measures.

The Bancorp believes noninterest income, noninterest expense, net interest income, net interest margin, pre-provision net revenue, efficiency ratio, noninterest income as a percent of total revenue, return on average common equity, return on average tangible common equity, and return on average assets are important measures that adjust for significant, unusual, or large transactions that may occur in a reporting period which management does not consider indicative of ongoing financial performance and enhances comparability of results with prior periods.

The Bancorp believes noninterest income excluding certain items and noninterest expense excluding certain items are important measures that adjust for certain components that are prone to significant period-to-period changes in order to facilitate the explanation of variances in the noninterest income and noninterest expense line items.

Management considers various measures when evaluating capital utilization and adequacy, including the tangible equity and tangible common equity (including and excluding AOCI), in addition to capital ratios defined by U.S. banking agencies. These calculations are intended to complement the capital ratios defined by U.S. banking agencies for both absolute and comparative purposes. These ratios are not formally defined by U.S. GAAP or codified in the federal banking regulations and, therefore, are considered to be non-GAAP financial measures. Management believes that providing the tangible common equity ratio excluding AOCI on certain assets and liabilities enables investors and others to assess the Bancorp's use of equity without the effects of changes in AOCI, some of which are uncertain; providing the tangible common equity ratio including AOCI enables investors and others to assess the Bancorp's use of equity if components of AOCI, such as unrealized gains or losses, were to be monetized.

Please note that although non-GAAP financial measures provide useful insight, they should not be considered in isolation or relied upon as a substitute for analysis using GAAP measures.

Please see reconciliations of all historical non-GAAP measures used in this release to the most directly comparable GAAP measures, beginning on the following page.
