

Avnet's Chuck Delph Recieves ECIA Distinguished Service Award

Terms:

Chuck Delph (1), president, Avnet Americas, was among six industry leaders who received a Distinguished Service Award at the annual ECIA conference (2) in Chicago last month. 2017's six honorees embody the spirit of giving back and have gone above and beyond their day jobs in the service of the association and the industry, according to ECIA Chairman David Doherty (3). "We are indebted to these honorees for their dedication and efforts to advance the industry and ECIA."

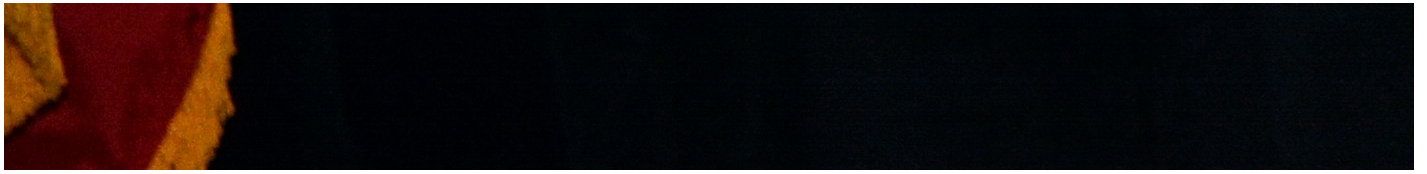

Chuck is a 28-year veteran of the electronics industry, and a seasoned distribution expert. He joined the EDS Board in 2012, and is currently serving as the association's president. Throughout his career, Chuck has held a variety of sales and management positions, including district manager, regional manager and area director. Since 2016, Chuck has lead Avnet's Americas business as president. In 2011, Chuck received Avnet's highest executive recognition, the Chairman's Award.

Multimedia

Preview Image:

Language:
English

Show recent blog posts

Source URL: <https://news.avnet.com/blog/delph>

Links:

[1] <https://www.linkedin.com/in/chuck-delph-68b7a89b>

[2] <https://www.ecianow.org/executive-conference/executive-conference-program/>

[3] <https://www.ecianow.org/about-ecia/board-of-directors/dave-doherty/>