

ZYNQ Book Giveaway

Terms:

Attend the Nov. 17 "Let's Get Started with the Zynq 7000" webinar for your chance to win

Interested in a free copy of The ZYNQ Book? This 450-page book covers both theory and implementation of hardware and software development using Xilinx® Zynq® - 7000 All Programmable System on Chip (SoC), and Avnet has three copies of this fabulous technical reference guide to give away to three lucky attendees of the "Let's Get Started with the Zynq 7000 Using the Avnet MiniZed™ [1] Development Board" webinar [2], Nov. 17, 2017, 9:00-10:00 am CST (USA/Chicago).

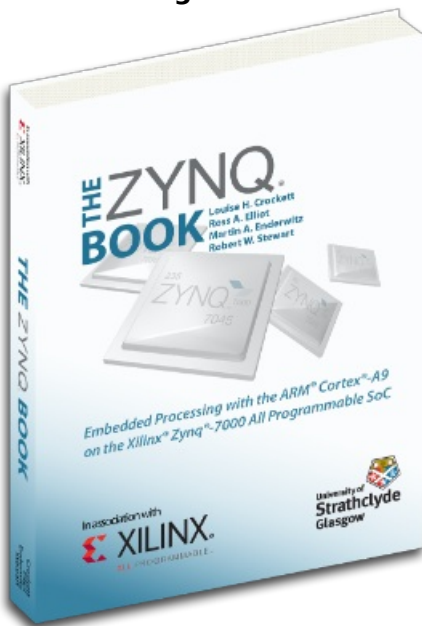

The webinar will feature Avnet Xilinx FAE Nick Hartl who will provide an overview of the Xilinx Zynq 7000 All Programmable SoC, a brief introduction to build tools including the Vivado Design Suite, as well as exclusive tips and resources for designers interested in developing with Zynq using the Avnet-designed MiniZed, a single-core Zynq 7Z007S development board that provides entry-level Zynq developers with a low-cost prototyping platform.

The webinar is highly recommended for anyone interested in the upcoming element14 RoadTest [3] of the Avnet MiniZed Development Board. Click here [4] for information on eligibility for the ZYNQ book giveaway. Click here [2] to attend the Webinar.

For a comprehensive offering of MiniZed reference designs and tutorials available from Avnet, please visit the MiniZed community site at: <http://zedboard.org> [5].
