

Avnet Abacus Named European Distributor of the Year by Molex

Terms:

Citing Avnet's success in advancing penetration of Molex technology solutions, expanding channels and outperforming the competition, Molex has named Avnet Abacus its 2016 European Distributor of the Year.

"Avnet Abacus serves an integral role in continuing the growth of Molex innovative technical solutions into the European market. We are proud to recognize their significant contribution to our distribution channel," said Henry Fuemiss, vice president sales and marketing EMEA, Molex. "Their team in Europe contributed to significant revenue growth for both companies."

Alan Jermyn, vice president of marketing, Avnet Abacus, added: "We have a strong collaboration with Molex which has enabled us to create new opportunities and support customers with Molex products."
