CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER
CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER
On 18 October 2023, the terms of a recommended all cash offer at 110 pence per share by Apax to acquire Kin + Carta were announced*, to be implemented by means of a court-sanctioned scheme of arrangement (the "Scheme")

The Scheme circular is due to be published in the next couple of weeks

The offer remains subject to shareholder approval, the satisfaction of regulatory clearances and court sanction

The Board considers that the offer represents an opportunity for shareholders to realise their investment in Kin and Carta for cash at a fair and reasonable value

Kin + Carta expects the Scheme to be effective in Q1 2024

Whilst the Board continues to believe in the DX market opportunity for Kin + Carta, it is cognisant that:

Despite a number of recent acquisitions, the Company remains small-scale within the context of its competitors

Being small-scale in a turbulent market has caused increased volatility in the Company’s trading and as a result, its share price

There continue to be significant market headwinds across the DX industry driven by hesitance among enterprise clients to commit to large programmes of work in the current macro environment, which impacts Kin + Carta’s future new business growth

Concentration has increased in the Company’s client base coupled with continuing “churn” in its revenue base

FY23 Summary

Declining macroeconomic environment slows market growth

- New business shortfall
- Enterprise\(^1\) caution (reduced spend)
- Client churn, primarily from non-enterprise clients

Management responds

- Margins protected
- c. £2m annualised reduction in selling and admin costs
- Acceleration of high-margin nearshore delivery (40% of total delivery headcount) at lower price point
- Continued investment in data & AI capabilities including the acquisition of Forecast Data Services

Foundations strengthen

- £97m backlog\(^2\) and £110m pipeline\(^3\)
- 90% of net revenue from blue-chip enterprise client portfolio (100% of Top 20 clients)
- 7 new enterprise logos

---

1 Enterprise client profiles are c. $1Bn+ in size and often multinational businesses. This includes government-backed Public Sector

2 Backlog is the value of signed and committed contracts not yet delivered; or future net revenue secured as a client win

3 Pipeline is the unweighted value of the qualified sales funnel
Operational Review
Operational Highlights

Growth

Clients
- Net revenue from key financial services, public sector, and agriculture industry sectors grew 21% YoY.
- The Group’s client concentration increased YoY. This includes the Company’s largest client which comprises 25% of total net revenue compared to 12% in prior year.
- New client wins including America’s largest automotive manufacturer, Japanese multinational technology company, S&P 400 automotive group, US National Veterinary Associates and £44.2 million of UK Public Sector contracts.
- All Top 20 client net revenue is from enterprise clients.
- Growth organised around industry sectors with sales, SMEs and delivery closer to the clients.

Data & AI
- Data & AI becomes the fastest growing service line with 55% growth in net revenue.
- Data & AI proposition scaled as priority launch partner for Google’s generative AI platform, and as one of the first businesses to access Microsoft’s generative AI platform.
- Completion of Forecast Data Services acquisition, deepening data & AI capabilities.

Partners
- Kin + Carta awarded ‘2023 Google Cloud Industry Solution Services Partner of the Year Award for Retail Digital Growth’, and ‘Sustainability Changemaker 2023 Microsoft US Partner of the Year Award’.

Operational Efficiency

Nearshore & Opex
- Acceleration of margin efficient nearshore delivery in Latin America and South East Europe to 40% of total delivery headcount.
- c. £2m annualised reduction in selling and admin costs improves cost structure.
The Company continued to invest in innovation, scaling market leading data & AI capabilities

Systematically building GenAI value

- All delivery staff enabled with Data Literacy training, upskilling a future-facing GenAI workforce
- Client training programmes to discover valuable GenAI use cases
- Enabling AI ambitions with enterprise data foundations

Engineering culture with a bias to build

- Building and deploying industry sector focused GenAI accelerators in:
  - Healthcare
  - Distribution and logistics,
  - GenAI for internal efficiency

NET REVENUE PREDICTABILITY (%)
Most revenue comes from existing clients

- 3 Year or more client tenure: 77%
- 2 Year client tenure: 16%
- New clients: 7%

Top 50 clients represent 89% of total revenue. Almost all of this revenue is derived from enterprise clients. Net revenue derived from client tenures. Excludes net revenue from Melon and Forecast Data acquisitions.
Income Statement

Key adjusting items:

- Acquisition costs include amortisation, deemed remuneration and other acquisition-related charges.
- Goodwill impairment relates to the ‘UK excluding Kin and Carta Data’ cash generating unit.
- Client disputes includes full and final settlement and advisor costs related to two client disputes previously disclosed. A credit of £3.3m is expected for full reimbursement by our insurer in FY24.
- A net credit of £7.8m relates to the renegotiation of the Chicago office lease that will result in a smaller, lower cost space in the same building from January 2024 under a new lease.

1 The impact of retranslating FY23 results at FY22 average exchange rates and excluding the impact of current and prior period acquisitions.
Balance Sheet

Net assets decreased by £53m driven by:

- £21.2m actuarial loss on the Pension Scheme surplus
- The net loss after tax of £18.8m
- Net share repurchases and settlements of £8.0m
- Equity to liabilities transfer in respect of contingent deferred payments for acquisitions made in prior periods of £10.6m

Net bank debt: £20.0m (FY22: £0.5m)

Bank leverage ratio: 1.04X (FY22: 0.01X)

Group’s insurers confirmed a further reimbursement of £3.3m for costs related to the settlement of the final client dispute (expected H1 FY24)

Pension

- Accounting surplus decreased to £13.0m
- Fully hedged against interest and inflation rate risk

Contingent and deferred consideration

- See full schedule in Appendix.

Market conditions + Outlook
FY24 considerations

Market
- New business is highly competitive and sales cycles continue to lengthen
- Pricing power has pivoted to the client with expectation of offshore rates
- Significant competitor discounting and working for free

Enterprise
- Continued volatility within the enterprise client base
- Macro, social, and geopolitical disruption:
  - United Auto Workers Strike
  - Agriculture commodity prices down
  - Middle East and East Europe military conflict
- Executive turnover in Enterprise clients creates instability

Kin + Carta
- Small-scale adds volatility
- Scaling nearshore, but no offshore delivery
- Client concentration is higher YoY and volatility in Top 20 clients has greater impact
- H2 visibility limited

Increasing Sales Cycle

FY24 Pipeline and backlog visibility

FY24 has more prudent deal qualification given the changed environment:

- More enterprise clients
- Pipeline has fewer large, low probability deals
- Macro risks, competitive bid environment and client budget constraints remain challenges to timing and quantum of conversion to revenue

* Pipeline – 2 unusually large opportunities in the UK that had a low probability weighting.
FY24 Outlook

New business remains highly competitive in the DX market and sales cycles remain challenging. Volatility continues in enterprise business with macro, social, and geopolitical disruption.

As we enter FY24, despite the volatile market, our business has stabilised. Assuming no further material headwinds that would further challenge our smaller scale and client concentration, we expect modest H1’24 growth over H2’23. Whilst visibility of H2’24 is limited, we expect continued modest sequential growth in H2’24. We therefore expect flat to low single digit total net revenue growth in FY24 compared with FY23, which included a strong Q1 2023 performance prior to the market downturn.
