

SIERRA METALS INC.

BOARD MANDATE

It is the responsibility of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Sierra Metals Inc. (the “Company”) to oversee the management of the business and affairs of the Company. The management of the day-to-day operations of the Company is delegated to the Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”) and the other senior executives of the Company (collectively, “Management”) under the stewardship of the Board.

In carrying out its duties, Board members shall: (1) provide Management with sound business guidance, calling upon the varied experiences and expertise of its members; (2) act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Company; and (3) exercise the level of care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

Chairman, Composition and Quorum

The Board shall be comprised of a minimum of one member and a maximum of 15 members, the majority of which shall be, in the determination of the Board, “independent” for the purposes of National Instrument 58-101 Disclosure of Corporate Governance Practices. Each Board member shall satisfy the independence and experience requirements, if any, imposed by applicable securities laws, rules or guidelines, any applicable stock exchange requirements or guidelines and any other applicable regulatory rules.

The Chairman of the Board shall be elected by vote of a majority of the full Board, on the recommendation of the Nomination Committee. The Chairman of the Board, with the assistance of the Lead Director (who shall be an independent director), if any, shall chair Board meetings and be responsible for overseeing the performance by the Board of its duties, for setting the agenda of each Board meeting (in consultation with the CEO), for communicating periodically with committee chairs regarding the activities of their respective committees, for assessing the effectiveness of the Board as a whole as well as individual Board members and for ensuring the Board works as a cohesive team and providing the leadership essential to achieve that.

Meetings

Meetings will be scheduled to facilitate the Board carrying out its responsibilities. Additional meetings will be held as deemed necessary by the Chairman of the Board. The time and place of the meetings, the calling of the meetings and the procedure of all things at such meetings shall be determined by the Board in accordance with the Company’s articles, by-laws and applicable laws. The independent directors of the Board shall hold regularly scheduled meetings at which non-independent directors and Management are not in attendance. Any director of the Company may request the Chairman of the Board to call a meeting of the Board.

Meetings of the Board shall be validly constituted if a majority of the members of the Board is present in person or by tele- or video-conference. A resolution in writing signed by all members of the Board entitled to vote on that resolution at a meeting of the Board is as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Board duly called and held.

To fulfil its responsibilities and duties, the Board shall be responsible for, amongst other things, the following:

Providing Guidance, Direction and Governance

- Ensuring that professional, technical, financial input and business know-how is forthcoming from members of the Board who have extensive and successful experience in their business or professional careers;
- Ensuring that professional, technical, financial input and industry know-how is forthcoming from members of the Board who have established experience in one or more natural resource or extractive industries;
- Providing community and corporate governance input commensurate with contemporary corporate practice to assist the Board and Management when making decisions;
- Providing guidance and direction to Management in pursuit of the Company's goals and strategic plans;
- Setting the tone for a culture of integrity and sound business decisions throughout the Company.

Appointing and Evaluating Management, Compensation and Succession Planning

- Selecting, setting goals for, monitoring the performance and competence of, and planning for the succession of the CEO;
- Ensuring that appropriate succession planning, training and monitoring is in place for Management generally;
- Approving the corporate objectives which form the basis for Management's incentive compensation;
- With the advice of the Compensation Committee, approving the compensation of the Management team and approving an appropriate compensation program for the Company's personnel.

Strategic Planning

- Adopting and implementing a strategic planning process which takes into account, amongst other things, the opportunities and risks of the business;
- Assessing the principal risks of the Company's business and ensuring the implementation of appropriate systems to identify and manage those risks.

Ethics and Social Responsibility

- Satisfying itself as to the integrity of the CEO and the other senior officers and satisfying itself that they create and maintain a culture of integrity throughout the Company;
- Approving the Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (the "Code") and monitoring compliance with the Code and the resolution of complaints related to the Code;
- Approving the Company's major policies and practices relating to social responsibility.

Disclosure and Financial Reporting

- Approving annual and quarterly reports, including the financial statements and related regulatory filings of the Company prior to their filing with applicable regulatory agencies and their release to the public;
- Adopting a Disclosure of Information Policy for the Company and monitoring its implementation;
- Overseeing the policies and procedures implemented by Management to ensure the integrity of the Company's internal controls, financial reporting and Management information systems;
- Ensuring that mechanisms are in place for the Board to receive feedback from stakeholders.

Governance

- Developing the Company's approach to corporate governance, including developing a set of corporate governance principles and guidelines that are specifically applicable to the Company;

- Monitoring the composition of the Board and identifying the competencies and skills required by the Board as a whole;
- Meeting regularly in the absence of Management and taking other reasonable steps to maintain the independence of the Board from Management;
- Adopting an appropriate, formal orientation program for new directors and ongoing education sessions on the various business units and strategies of the Company for all directors;
- Establishing and appointing Board committees, however designated, and delegating to any such Board committees any of the powers of the Board except those pertaining to items which, under the Canada Business Corporations Act, a Board committee has no authority to exercise;
- Determining whether or not individual directors meet the requirements for independence set out in the rules of the stock exchange and securities regulatory authorities to which the Company is subject, and making such disclosures as are required with respect to that determination.

In carrying out its responsibilities, the Board will conform to the following policies:

Decisions Requiring Board Approval

The Board may delegate to the CEO or other officers the authority to approve individual commitments and expenditures for any corporate purpose on such terms as the Board considers appropriate. The Board retains responsibility for approving expenditures beyond those delegated limits, significant changes in the Company's affairs such as approval of major capital expenditures, new debt financing arrangements and significant investments, acquisitions and divestitures. No securities can be issued without the authorization of the Board and the Board must specifically authorize the purchase, redemption or other acquisition of shares issued by the Company.

Measures for Receiving Feedback from Security Holders

The Company has an investor relations department which is responsible for communications with investors. Investors have the opportunity to provide feedback to the Company via the investor relations group through email at the Company's website, through direct or telephone contact with the investor relations officer (a contact person is identified in each press release) and through regular mail service. In addition, the Company regularly has face-to-face meetings with investment analysts and institutional investors where feedback is provided directly to the investor relations officer and Management present at the meeting. The investor relations department responds to all investor enquiries in a timely manner either directly, or by passing the request along to the appropriate department in the Company for their response. Investor feedback is evaluated by the Vice-President of Investor Relations and summarized for Management. This evaluation takes into account the nature and frequency of the feedback and the sensitivity of the subject under discussion. Significant shareholder comments and analysts' reports on the Company are reported to the Board.

Expectations of Management

The day-to-day management of the Company and its operations is the responsibility of Management under the direction of the CEO. The Board expects Management to manage and maintain the Company's operations efficiently and safely. The Board has adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics that requires each staff employee to maintain the highest ethical standards of behaviour while conducting the Company's business.

Director Orientation and Education

The Board will ensure that all new directors receive a comprehensive orientation. New directors will be provided with a copy of the Company's key policies, codes and mandates. The Board will encourage and provide continuing education opportunities to directors including regularly scheduled briefings on the Company's operations, business and key issues.
