This CHARTER (the "Charter") of the Technology Committee (the "Committee") was adopted by the Board of Directors (the "Board") of 3D Systems Corporation (the "Company") on March 12, 2018.

A. Purpose. The primary purposes of the Committee shall be to assist the Board and the Company’s management by providing oversight and guidance with respect to the Company’s overall capabilities and strategic direction in matters of technology and innovation, including research and development and other technological initiatives, and to identify risks that could have a significant impact on the Company’s operations and pursuit of its long-term strategic goals.

B. Members. The Committee shall be comprised of at least two directors. The Committee shall be comprised of at least a majority of "Independent Directors" of the Board. For purposes of this Charter, "Independent Directors" shall mean directors who are determined by the Board to comply with standards of independence established by the Board consistent with applicable statutes, regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission, and listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. Each Independent Director will be free of any relationship that, in the opinion of the Board, would interfere with his or her individual exercise of independent judgment. Members of the Committee shall be appointed and may be removed by the Board. The Board shall determine which member shall serve as Chairman.

C. Duties and Responsibilities. In furtherance of the purposes set forth above, the Committee shall have the following responsibilities and duties:

1. Review the Company’s technology strategy and approach, including its impact on the Company’s performance, growth and competitive position.

2. Review the Company’s technology capabilities and intellectual property, assess short-term and long-term needs and provide guidance on the Company’s technology and innovation strategy and approach in view of the Company’s business strategies and plans.

3. Assess the Company’s technical workforce and its suitability for meeting needs, including engineering leadership and the development and succession planning process for critical technology experts.

4. Review and advise on the Company’s research and development expenditure plans, including the technical relevance of proposed activities.

5. Assist the Board in its oversight of the Company’s technology initiatives and investments, including through acquisitions and other business development activities.

6. Review and provide guidance on such other technology-related issues of the importance to the Company as the Board may from time to time prescribe.
7. Evaluate the Committee's performance and Charter periodically, and recommend to the Board such modifications to the Charter, the membership of the Committee and its procedures as the Committee deems necessary or appropriate.

8. Make reports to the Board at its next regularly scheduled meeting as appropriate following meetings of the Committee, accompanied by any recommendations to the Board.

9. Perform such other functions within the scope of the foregoing which the Committee deems appropriate to undertake from time to time.

D. Authority. The Committee will have the resources and authority necessary to discharge its duties and responsibilities, including the authority to retain outside counsel or other experts or consultants, as it deems appropriate. Any communications between the Committee and legal counsel in the course of obtaining legal advice will be considered privileged communications of the Company, and the Committee will take all necessary steps to preserve the privileged nature of those communications.

E. Meetings. The Committee will meet as often as deemed necessary or appropriate, in its judgment. The Committee will cause to be kept adequate minutes of all its proceedings, and will report its actions to the next meeting of the Board. Committee members will be furnished with copies of the minutes of each meeting and any action taken by unanimous consent. The Committee will be governed by the same rules regarding meetings (including meetings by conference telephone or similar communications equipment), action by written consent without meetings, notice, waiver of notice, and quorum and voting requirements as are applicable to the Board. The Committee is authorized and empowered to adopt its own rules of procedure not inconsistent with (a) any provision of this Charter, (b) any provision of the By-Laws of the Company, or (c) the laws of the State of Delaware.
