

Donaldson Company Names Eugene Wu Vice President, Asia Pacific

MINNEAPOLIS--Donaldson Company, Inc. (NYSE: DCI), announced today that it has appointed Eugene Wu as Vice President for its Asia Pacific business. Wu, 43, will assume the leadership of Donaldson's Asia Pacific business from David Timm, who is retiring in January as previously announced.

As a member of Donaldson's senior leadership team, Wu will lead Donaldson's Asia Pacific group. Wu will report to Bill Cook, Donaldson's Chairman, President and CEO. Wu will office in Asia and will have the regional title of President, Asia Pacific.

"I am very pleased to announce the addition of Eugene as Vice President of our Asia Pacific region," said Cook. "We are committed to our vision of becoming the world's leader in filtration solutions and are extremely excited about the opportunities we see to leverage our core strengths across Asia Pacific. With his operations background and extensive international experience, Eugene is an excellent addition to our global management team and will lead our Asia Pacific team in accomplishing the next targets in our Company's Strategic Growth Plan."

Most recently, Wu was Chief Advisor to the Chairman of the Board with Wanhua Industrial Group. Prior to that, Wu previously was Global Vice President and President of Asia Pacific for Greif, Inc. Wu also served as Global Vice President of Operations at Elemica and was co-founder of Thinkagent Technologies. Earlier in his career, he also held roles as Global Business Director of Cabot Corporation and Business Development Manager for Dow Chemical.

Wu earned a bachelor's degree from Zhejiang University, a Master's degree in Electrical and Computer Engineering from Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology, and an MBA from The Krannert Graduate School of Management-Purdue.
