

ENABLE MIDSTREAM PARTNERS, LP

CODE OF ETHICS for SENIOR FINANCIAL OFFICERS

1. Introduction

The honesty, integrity and sound judgment of the Senior Financial Officers (as defined below) of Enable GP, LLC (the “General Partner”) and Enable Midstream Partners, LP (together with its’ subsidiaries the “Company”) are fundamental to the Company’s reputation and success. While all directors, officers and employees are required to adhere to the Company’s Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, the professional and ethical conduct of the Senior Financial Officers is essential to the Company’s proper functioning and success.

2. Applicability

This Code of Ethics for Senior Financial Officers (this “Code of Ethics”) will apply to the Company’s Senior Financial Officers. As used in this Code of Ethics, “Senior Financial Officers” means the General Partner’s Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Chief Accounting Officer, Controller, Treasurer and other persons performing similar functions, and to persons designated as Senior Financial Officers by the General Partner’s Chief Executive Officer or by the Audit Committee of the General Partner’s Board of Directors.

3. Standards of Conduct

To the best of their knowledge and ability, the Senior Financial Officers will:

- a. Act with honesty and integrity, including the ethical handling of actual or apparent conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships;
- b. Provide full, fair, accurate, timely, and understandable disclosure in reports and documents that we file with, or submit to, the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and in other public communications made by the Company;
- c. Comply with applicable laws, rules and regulations, including insider trading laws;
- d. Promote the prompt internal reporting of violations of this Code of Ethics to the Chair of the Audit Committee of the General Partner’s Board of Directors and to the appropriate person or persons identified in the Company’s Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, and encourage employees to talk to supervisors, managers or other appropriate personnel when in doubt about the best course of action in a particular situation;
- e. Avoid (i) taking personal advantage of opportunities that are discovered through the use of Company property, information or position; (ii) using Company property, information, or position for personal gain; and (iii) competing with the Company;

- f. Respect the confidentiality of information acquired in the course of employment;
- g. Endeavor to deal fairly with the customers, suppliers, competitors and employees;
- h. Protect the Company's assets and ensure the efficient use of those assets for legitimate business purposes;
- i. Maintain the skills necessary and relevant to the Company's needs;
- j. Promote, as appropriate, contact by employees with the Chief Ethics and Compliance Officer or the Chair of the Audit Committee of the General Partner's Board of Directors for any issues concerning improper accounting or financial reporting without fear of retaliation; and
- k. Proactively promote ethical and honest behavior within the Company.

All Senior Financial Officers are expected to adhere to both the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and this Code of Ethics. Any violation of this Code of Ethics will be subject to appropriate discipline, up to and including dismissal and prosecution under the law. The Audit Committee of the General Partner's Board of Directors will have the sole and absolute discretionary authority to approve any deviation or waiver from this Code of Ethics. Any change in or waiver from and the grounds for such change or waiver of this Code of Ethics will be promptly disclosed through a filing with the SEC on Form 8-K.
