Fastenal Company Announces Cash Dividend

WINONA, Minn., Oct. 12, 2015 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- The Fastenal Company (the "Company") of Winona, MN (Nasdaq:FAST) reported its board of directors declared a dividend of $0.28 per share to be paid in cash on November 24, 2015 to shareholders of record at the close of business on October 27, 2015.

Fastenal began paying annual dividends in 1991, semi-annual dividends in 2003, and then expanded to quarterly dividends in 2011. Our board of directors intends to continue paying quarterly dividends, provided that any future determination as to payment of dividends will depend upon the financial condition and results of operations of the Company and such other factors as are deemed relevant by the board of directors, such as income tax rates related to dividends.

In 2015, 2014, and 2013, we paid (or declared) dividends as follows:

This press release contains statements that are not historical in nature and that are intended to be, and are hereby identified as, "forward looking statements" as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including a statement regarding expectations as to payment of a quarterly cash dividend in the foreseeable future. Any future determination as to payment of dividends will depend upon the financial condition and results of operations of the Company and such other factors as are deemed relevant by the board of directors. For example, a change in business needs including working capital and funding for acquisitions, or a change in income tax law relating to dividends, could cause the Company to decide not to pay a dividend in the future. A discussion of other risks and uncertainties is included in the Company's filings with the SEC, including our most recent annual and quarterly reports. FAST-D
