

First Financial Bank Announces the Election of Jeff Vorhees, EVP, Treasurer

2025-04-24

ABILENE, Texas, April 24, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- The Board of Directors of First Financial Bank has announced the election of Jeff Vorhees as Executive Vice President and Treasurer of First Financial Bank.

"We are delighted to welcome Jeff to the Bank to fill this very important role leading our finance team," said David Bailey, President of First Financial Bankshares. "Jeff's recent position at a larger bank, as well as his experience as a former bank examiner, will be critical in helping us make strategic balance sheet decisions and meet regulatory expectations as we grow."

Vorhees most recently served as Director of Corporate Treasury at Independent Financial, a $19 billion public bank, in McKinney Texas. Prior to that, he held positions in asset liability management consulting, investment banking, and as a commissioned bank examiner at the Dallas Federal Reserve Bank. He holds bachelor's degrees in finance and economics from Texas Tech University, an MBA from Southern Methodist University, and is a graduate of the Stonier Graduate School of Banking. He is also a Certified Management Accountant and a Certified Treasury Professional.
