

First Financial Bankshares Names James Hinton President of First Financial Mortgage

2025-05-01

ABILENE, Texas, May 1, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- The Board of Directors of First Financial Bankshares, Inc. (NASDAQ: FFIN) (the "Company") has named James Hinton as President of First Financial Mortgage.

"We are excited to welcome James into this important leadership position for First Financial Mortgage," said David Bailey, President of First Financial Bankshares. "James has over four decades of leadership in the mortgage finance industry and he brings a level of energy that will help drive our Mortgage team forward as we continue to grow."

Hinton is a lifelong Texan and has deep roots in the Dallas business community. Right out of college, James took the reins of his family's mortgage company that was founded in 1950. Under his leadership, the company flourished until its successful sale in 1992. Following the sale of his business, Hinton has maintained several roles in mortgage finance, most recently serving as Executive Vice President of Residential Mortgage Warehouse Lending at Independent Financial.

James is a graduate of Southwestern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas. In addition to his professional achievements, Hinton is dedicated to giving back to the community. He has served as a certified SCORE mentor, where he provides guidance and support to small business startups.
