MSG Network Wins Big at New York Emmys With 14 Awards - More Than Any Other Network or Station

126 Wins Over Past Nine Years the Most of Any Network or Station in the Region

MSG Networks Collects a Total of 16 Awards

NEW YORK, March 21, 2016 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- The New York Chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences (NATAS) announced Saturday that MSG Network received 14 New York Emmy Awards, the most of any single network or station. With MSG Network's awards, plus one win for MSG+ and one win for MSGNetworks.com, MSG Networks took home a total of 16 Emmys. The New York Emmy Awards recognize television and advanced media programs that were produced for telecast in New York state and northern New Jersey, and aired between September 1, 2014 and August 31, 2015.

MSG Network's 14 wins gives the network 126 New York Emmy Awards over the past nine years, more than any single network or station in the region over that time. MSG Networks has totaled 145 Emmys during that period and 248 in its history.

"It is an honor to be recognized at this year's New York Emmy Awards with 16 wins," said Andrea Greenberg, president and chief executive officer, MSG Networks. "We are dedicated to bringing our fans exceptional programming with the highest production values and this recognition reflects our commitment. I commend our incredibly talented staff on their great achievement."

Highlights of the night included two Emmy wins for MSG Network's "Friday Night Knicks" game telecasts in the category of Sporting Event/Game Live/Unedited for both series and program/special and two wins for MSG Network's Rangers coverage for Sports: News Series and Sports: Daily or Weekly Program. MSG Network's original programming including The Mask with Henrik Lundqvist, The Garden's Defining Moments, Clyde's New York, and Spike Lee's What is the Triangle Offense? were all awarded with wins.
