Part II Organizational Action Attach additional statements if needed. See back of form for additional questions.

14 Describe the organizational action and, if applicable, the date of the action or the date against which shareholders' ownership is measured for the action ▶ Class A common stock distribution of $0.610 per share declared on January 30, 2020 by the Blackstone Group Inc. ("Company") was paid on February 18, 2020. The date of record was at the close of business on February 10, 2020. Class A common stock distribution of $0.390 per share declared on April 23, 2020 by the Company was paid on May 11, 2020. The date of record was at the close of business on May 4, 2020. Class A common stock distribution of $0.370 per share declared on July 23, 2020 by the Company was paid on August 10, 2020. The date of record was at the close of business on August 3, 2020. Class A common stock distribution of $0.540 per share declared on October 28, 2020 by the Company was paid on November 16, 2020. The date of record was at the close of business on November 9, 2020.

15 Describe the quantitative effect of the organizational action on the basis of the security in the hands of a U.S. taxpayer as an adjustment per share or as a percentage of old basis ▶ The Company currently estimates that the Class A common stock shareholder's tax basis for the February 18, 2020 distribution will reduce by $0.310 per share. The company currently estimates that the Class A common stock shareholer's tax basis for the May 11, 2020 distribution will reduce by $0.200 per share. The Company currently estimates that the Class A common stock shareholder's tax basis for the August 10, 2020 distribution will reduce by $0.190 per share. The Company currently estimates that the Class A common stock shareholder's tax basis for the November 16, 2020 distribution will reduce by $0.280 per share.

16 Describe the calculation of the change in basis and the data that supports the calculation, such as the market values of securities and the valuation dates ▶ Pursuant to Internal Revenue Code Sections 301(c) and 316(c), the distributions are treated as taxable dividend to the extent of the Company's current and accumulated earnings and profits. Distributions in excess of the Company's current and accumulated earnings and profits are treated as nontaxable return of capital to the extent of the shareholder's tax basis. Any distributions in excess of the shareholder's tax basis will be treated as capital gains for U.S. tax purposes. The taxability of the Company's distributions and the determination of the character of the distributions are based on the most current and accurate estimated earnings and profits information of the Company available at the time this form is published for the period ended December 31, 2020. The calculation of the earnings and profits differs from income calculated in accordance with GAAP and non-GAAP metrics used in segment reporting (Fee Related Earnings & Realized Income) since it is based on taxable income which includes certain non-cash deductions, among other book to tax differences in income and expenses.

Part II Organizational Action (continued)

17 List the applicable Internal Revenue Code section(s) and subsection(s) upon which the tax treatment is based ► Internal Revenue Code Sections 301(c) and 316(c)

18 Can any resulting loss be recognized? ► N/A

19 Provide any other information necessary to implement the adjustment, such as the reportable tax year ► The return of capital in Item 15 above is an estimate based on the most current and accurate estimated earnings and profits information available at the time this form is published for the reportable tax year 2020. The Company may report an updated Form 8937 upon the filing of the 2020 Federal Income Tax Return if it determines that the amount of distributions treated as a return of capital with respect to each share of Class A common stock changes. The above information does not constitute tax advice. It is recommended that shareholders consult with their own tax advisors regarding the income tax consequences of amounts that may be revised at a later date.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have examined this return, including accompanying schedules and statements, and to the best of my knowledge and belief, it is true, correct, and complete. Declaration of preparer (other than officer) is based on all information of which preparer has any knowledge.
