NEW YORK, Sept. 22, 2015 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- MSG Entertainment (MSGE) announced today that the 2016 production of New York Spring Spectacular, presented by Chase, will run in a 75 show engagement from June 15-August 7, 2016. The show - which celebrates the magic of New York City and stars the legendary Rockettes - debuted in 2015 and, in its inaugural year, was extended by popular demand, selling nearly 300,000 tickets over its eight-week run. To coincide with the change in time of year, the name of the production will be adjusted. "Coming off a successful inaugural run of New York Spring Spectacular at Radio City Music Hall, which was embraced by both New Yorkers and visitors alike, we have decided to shift the timing of the production to the summer," said David O'Connor, president & CEO, The Madison Square Garden Company. "During the summer months, New York City sees a significant increase in tourism and shifting the production will provide an opportunity for even more people to experience this dazzling musical celebration starring the Rockettes."

New York Spring Spectacular stars the Rockettes and is a love letter to New York City, celebrating the energy, places, passion and promise that make New York spectacular.
