

SunOpta Acquires the Quest Vitamins Brand

TORONTO--Nov. 9, 2006--SunOpta Inc. (SunOpta or the Company) (NASDAQ:STKL) (TSX:SOY) today announced that it has completed the acquisition of the Quest Vitamins brand of vitamins, minerals and supplements including the business, inventory, Vancouver warehousing operations and a two year manufacturing agreement with the former owner.

Quest, with current revenues of approximately $8 million, is a premium quality line of natural vitamins and supplements sold for the past 30 years throughout Canada in both Food, Drug and Mass and health food retailers.

The acquisition will be integrated with the recently acquired operations of Purity Life Health Products (Purity Life) and the SunOpta Canadian Food Distribution Group resulting in immediate synergies arising from shared warehousing, expanded sales coverage and improved service levels.

David Chapman, President of Purity Life, a division of the SunOpta Canadian Food Distribution Group, described the Quest Acquisition "as a perfect fit for Purity Life and SunOpta" and confirmed his intention to continue to grow the Quest brand across all channels through innovative product development, marketing and retailer programs.

About SunOpta Inc.

SunOpta Inc. is an operator of high-growth ethical businesses, focusing on integrated business models in the natural and organic food markets. The Company has three business units: the SunOpta Food Group, which specializes in sourcing, processing and distribution of natural and organic food products integrated from seed through packaged products; the Opta Minerals Group, a producer, distributor, and recycler of environmentally friendly industrial materials; and the SunOpta BioProcess Group which engineers and markets proprietary steam explosion technology systems for the pulp, bio-fuel and food processing industries. Each of these business units has proprietary products and services that give it a solid competitive advantage in its sector.
