Ensco Rated #1 Offshore Driller for Fifth Consecutive Year in Independent Customer Satisfaction Survey

1/29/2015

LONDON--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- For the fifth consecutive year, Ensco plc (NYSE: ESV) earned first place for total customer satisfaction in the Oilfield Products & Services Customer Satisfaction Survey. Conducted by EnergyPoint Research, the annual survey is the industry benchmark for customer satisfaction in the global oilfield.

Ensco led all offshore drilling contractors in the survey by receiving top honors in 10 of 16 categories including total customer satisfaction; health, safety and environment; technology; deepwater drilling; harsh climate applications; shelf wells; horizontal and directional wells; and special applications. Ensco also rated first in the North Sea, Latin America and Mexico.

CEO and President Carl Trowell stated, "Success for customers is a core value of our company and we remain committed to delivering the highest levels of safety and operational excellence." He added, "Our ongoing pursuit of world-class operating systems is aimed at being number one in service quality and delivering an incident-free workplace. Therefore, we are gratified to be recognized as the best offshore driller in terms of total customer satisfaction. Our top scores across a breadth of categories also reflect the excellent uptime performance and drilling efficiencies that our offshore crews and onshore personnel provide to customers."

The independent survey was conducted as part of EnergyPoint Research's 2014 industry-wide Oilfield Products & Services Survey, comprising thousands of in-depth evaluations performed over a 24-month period.
