EnSCO Rated #1 Offshore Driller for Sixth Consecutive Year in Independent Customer Satisfaction Survey

1/14/2016

LONDON--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- For the sixth consecutive year, EnSCO plc (NYSE: ESV) has earned first place for total customer satisfaction in the Offshore Drilling segment of the Oilfield Products & Services Customer Satisfaction Survey conducted by EnergyPoint Research. The annual survey is the industry benchmark for customer satisfaction in the global oilfield.

EnSCO led all offshore drilling contractors in the survey by receiving top honors in 13 of 18 categories including total customer satisfaction; safety and environment; performance and reliability; job quality; ultra-deepwater wells; deepwater wells; harsh environment wells; horizontal and directional wells; shelf wells; and special applications. We also rank first in the Middle East, Asia and Pacific Rim and the North Sea.

CEO and President Carl Trowell stated, "Success for customers is a core value of our company and, despite the current cycle, we remain committed to delivering the highest levels of safety and operational excellence to our customers. We are gratified that our customers recognize the commitment of our offshore crews and onshore personnel."

The independent survey was conducted as part of EnergyPoint Research's 2015 industry-wide Oilfield Products & Services Survey, comprising thousands of in-depth evaluations.
